- * All steps are taken to ensure the completeness and accuracy of our database. However, due to registrar/registry administrative procedures during domain name registration, some domain names may not be present in our database.
- * Domain name registrars do not report domain names which are not currently registered, nor do they report domain names which may be "on hold" with the registrar.
- * All domain names cited in this report should be considered to be REGISTERED as of the time this report was generated.
- * For common names, retrieval may be limited to the identical spelling of the name as ordered.

Due to the nature of the Web, and because we do not filter Web content, it is possible that the Web Page Lookups included in this report may contain objectionable material. If you wish to avoid the possibility of receiving such material, please contact us to "opt out" of Web Page Lookups.

For Dentist Who Want To Grow Their Dental Practice by Growing their relationship with their lab in order to create more consistent quality Restorations at a reasonable cost .

As a woman dental lab owner and technician it has been a great experience working with dentist from all over. I have had ups and downs just like most all of you but what has helped is being committed to the success of this business. I have recently put into place a system that I find very valuable to the growth of my lab and the business that I do with my clients. So I wanted to share with you all exactly what I have found that works for me and I hope that it will allow you to see that what I do in the lab can help your dental practice if you so choose to send work to my lab.

It all starts with the impression.

- When I get the cases in the lab from the courier the case goes thru a disinfection process.
- The cases are then scheduled for each phase of manufacturing.
- Models are poured sawed trimmed, articulated, mounted (any irregularities on poured models sent by the dental office are removed),

For Dentist Who Want To Grow Their Dental Practice by Growing their relationship with their lab in order to create more consistent quality Restorations at a reasonable cost .

As a woman dental lab owner and technician it has been a great experience working with dentist from all over. I have had ups and downs just like most all of you but what has helped is being committed to the success of this business. I have recently put into place a system that I find very valuable to the growth of my lab and the business that I do with my clients. So I wanted to share with you all exactly what I have found that works for me and I hope that it will allow you to see that what I do in the lab can help your dental practice if you so choose to send work to my lab.

It all starts with the impression.

- When I get the cases in the lab from the courier the case goes thru a disinfection process.
- The cases are then scheduled for each phase of manufacturing.
- Models are poured sawed trimmed, articulated, mounted (any irregularities on poured models sent by the dental office are removed),

REPORTED OWNER INDEX

The following is an alphabetical listing of names reported in the OWNER field of records cited in this search report, with all marks owned by a single entity carried under that entity. (Due to inconsistent spellings, corporate designations, and other discrepancies in data collected from diverse sources, multiple listings of what are in fact the same owner may occur.) The Business Name and Domain Name sections of the report are not included in this index.

This tool is designed to facilitate your review of the search report and to help you identify trends in data. There has been no analysis made to determine if the company name listed is the actual owner of the trademark. In the case of USPTO listings, only officially reported owners are included; assignees are not considered owners for the purpose of this index.
